

To see the version with all the graphics and pictures please click Here 10-23-08 #61

Russell Shippee

Quotes

"If a person gets his attitude toward money straight, it will help straighten out almost every other area in his life."

Billy Graham

"If money be not thy servant, it will be thy master."

Francis Bacon

Dear Friends,

Welcome to the new subscribers. To read previous newsletters please click HERE

Some wondered why I recommended the Billionaire Business System. No, it is not so you can be a billionaire, although that would be fine if it were your goal. The value I found was in the learning, the lectures, and the business information. There is a great education available. So, if we can learn to work smarter, rather than harder, it is a great investment. You might want to try it.

So, what is the positive from all the financial turmoil? Yes, there is a positive for all of us and we will all not come away with the same positive. Yes, the glass is half full and we need to enjoy that half.

Are we in a period of strength or weakness? Perhaps the article below will assist you in answering the question.

Perhaps the current situation is motivating you to do what you have been waiting to do. Perhaps it is time. Yes, do it now. Throw your heart over the bar and your body will follow. It is that simple.

There is always a job and always something you can do to add value.

Yes, allow what is, allow your thoughts, positive or negative as to what is now, and then take the first step forward in changing what you do not like. Yes, take the first step.

What about 2009? We'll be fine in 09!

Enjoy the Journey,

"Money is not required to buy one necessity of the soul."

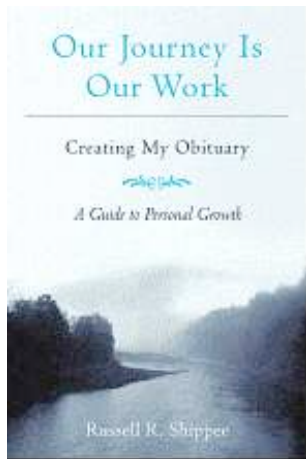

Henry David Thoreau

"The greatest discovery of this generation is that a human being can alter their life by altering their attitude."

William James

"Never miss a good chance to shut up."

Will Rogers

Learn to Create and Enjoy the Journey!

Click to buy it
NOW
HERE

Russell

Russell R Shippee

Helping You, Motivating You, Empowering You, to Be the BEST You Can Be

Feedback

Thanks. A great reminder. REL

Thanks for ALL the feedback on Cameron. Yes, children teach us so much, are such a joy, and everyone seems to look forward to his smiling face. I start my new job Wednesday of babysitting 1/2 day a week. My schedule is cleared and I am ready. I wonder what he will teach me this week?

Billionaire Business System

When I saw the above title I was more than skeptical. However, I did look and found it to be a real site from Bill Bartmann who has done it.

Yes, I paid the fee for access to lectures and lessons. While I have been in business almost 40 years I found great value in the material.

So, I recommend that you check it out HERE. In these times I think you will find some great value. Remember, the best investment is the one in yourself. Try it. You might just want to give it to a friend or family member.

Sure, it's making money. But, it is also working smarter and not harder. No, your goal does not have to be making a billion. But, if you want more time and better business practices then check it out HERE.

Teaching someone to fish, as they say, is better than giving them a fish.

Do you have any friends? I mean, do you have any friends who would enjoy the positive focus and empowerment of this newsletter? Today many can use the positive focus. If so, be a friend and forward this newsletter to them telling them to subscribe.

Click Here to Subscribe - You will be GLAD you did

Strength Vs Weakness

The following is the story of one 10-year-old boy who decided to study judo despite the fact that he had lost his left arm in a devastating car accident.

The boy began lessons with an old Japanese judo master. The boy was doing well, so he couldn't understand why, after three months of training, the master had taught him only one move.

"Sensei," the boy finally said, "Shouldn't I be learning more moves?"

"This is the only move you know, but this is the only move you'll ever need to know," the sensei replied. Not quite understanding, but believing in his teacher, the boy kept training.

Several months later, the sensei took the boy to his first tournament. Surprising himself, the boy easily won his first two matches. The third match proved to be more difficult, but after some time, his opponent became impatient and charged; the boy deftly used his one move to win the match.

Still amazed by his success, the boy was now in the finals.

This time, his opponent was bigger, stronger, and more experienced. For a while, the boy appeared to be overmatched. Concerned that the boy might get hurt, the referee called a time-out. He was about to stop the match when the sensei intervened. "No," the sensei insisted, "Let him continue."

Soon after the match resumed, his opponent made a critical mistake; He dropped his guard. Instantly, the boy used his move to pin him down. The boy had won the match and the tournament.

He was now the champion.

On the way home, the boy and the sensei reviewed every move in each and every match. Then the boy summoned the courage to ask what was really on his mind.

"Sensei, how did I win the tournament with only one move?"

"You won for two reasons," the sensei answered. "First, you've almost mastered one of the most difficult throws in all of judo. And second, the only known defense for that move is for your opponent to grab your left arm."

The boy's biggest weakness had become his biggest strength.
Author Unknown

Forward email

✉ SafeUnsubscribe®

This email was sent to rshippee@lighthousepartnersllc.com by rshippee@lighthousepartnersllc.com.

Update Profile/Email Address | Instant removal with SafeUnsubscribe™ | Privacy Policy.

Email Marketing by

Lighthouse Partners LLC - BetheBestYouCanBe | 1 Poplar Ave | Wickford | RI | 02852

THIS IS A TEST EMAIL ONLY.

This email was sent by the author for the sole purpose of testing a draft message. If you believe you have received the message in error, please contact the author by replying to this message. Constant Contact takes reports of abuse very seriously: if you wish to report abuse, please forward this message to abuse@constantcontact.com.